

Behold He Comes Lyrics

[Intro]

Gathered hearts await in the hush of night, a yearning deep within
Hope ignites as silence breaks, the world in prayer begins

[Verse 1]

In shadows cast beneath the fading stars, the nations hold their breath
A gaze turned skyward, hands raised to the heavens, alive from the depths
The morning Sun prepares to rise, the heavens start to glow
The trumpet calls as Heaven hears the whispers of the throne

[Pre-Chorus]

Heaven's signs alight the path, the change begins to stir
The clouds begin to open wide, the promise now assured

[Chorus]

Behold, He comes, riding on the clouds, a vision bright unfolds
He reigns with love, with peace and grace, the glory yet untold
Our hearts prepare, we lift our souls, for soon we will behold
Behold, His light now breaks the dark, our Savior strong and bold

[Verse 2]

And then the skies burst open wide, angels gather near
In robes of white, the heavens sing, their anthem loud and clear
The nations tremble, eyes lifted high, as the King draws near in light

Riding forth upon the winds, through the timeless night

[Pre-Chorus]

The armies gather in His name, a chorus echoes wide

With every heart united, Yahusha will abide

[Chorus]

Behold, He comes, riding on the white horse, a vision to behold

With fiery eyes igniting hope, His love will break the cold

Our hearts rejoice, we lift our praise, the Savior we uphold

Behold, His might now breaks the chains, our hearts will never fold

[Bridge]

Eyes of fire, crowns of gold, a robe of glory true

King of Kings, Lord of Lords, forever we will follow You

As the earth begins to witness, we behold with awe and fear

Yahusha comes, our hope fulfilled, the victory is here

[Final Chorus]

Behold, He comes, eyes of fire burning bright, the King of all the earth

King of Kings, Lord of Lords, forever we will sing Your worth

Yahusha comes, our hearts will soar, united through His grace

Behold, He comes, the promise kept, our Savior we embrace

[Outro]

Lifted high, lifted praise, the heavens now declare

The Return of the King is here, a love beyond compare
