

[Verse 1]

In the moments of our lives, seasons change like the tide,
There's a time for morning light, a time to seek, a time to hide.
From the laughter to the tears, every heartache, every cheer,
God, we trust in every phase, knowing You are always near.

[Chorus]

This is His time, in the ebb and flow,
Every joy and sorrow, we let the spirit show.
A time to gather, a time to sing,
In all that we do, let our praises ring.

[Verse 2]

There's a time for peace and war, a time for planting and for more,
In the chaos of our days, we find hope in Your core.
Ecclesiastes whispers truth, in every line we find our proof,
In the dance of time we know, it's You that guides our youth.

[Chorus]

This is His time, in the ebb and flow,
Every joy and sorrow, we let the spirit show.
A time to gather, a time to sing,
In all that we do, let our praises ring.

[Bridge]

Oh, every heartbeat, every breath,

We raise our voices in reverent depth.
In every season, You are our guide,
Through the mountains high, or the valleys wide.

[Verse 3]

So let us dance in our confusion, raise a hand in conviction,
For in every time and place, we find our heart's depiction.
You are the Author of our days, the architect of our ways,
In every trial, every test, we lift our hearts in praise.

[Chorus]

This is His time, in the ebb and flow,
Every joy and sorrow, we let the spirit show.
A time to gather, a time to sing,
In all that we do, let our praises ring.

[Verse 4]

We'll stand together hand in hand, in the trials that we face,
In the story of our lives, You give each moment grace.
In unity we sing aloud, with strength that overflows,
In the tapestry of love, Your faithfulness still grows.

[Chorus]

This is His time, in the ebb and flow,
Every joy and sorrow, we let the spirit show.
A time to gather, a time to sing,

In all that we do, let our praises ring.

[Outro]

So let us celebrate His goodness, with every song we share,

In the beauty of Your timing, Lord, we find You everywhere.

For this is His time, God, the time to live and fight,

With our hearts entwined in love, we declare, You are the Light.
