

[Verse 1]

For me, my Abba calls;
The gates of peace I've found,
And sweetly, o'er the jasper walls,
His words of promise sound.
I long to know my Yah;
I trust his wondrous grace;
And so I love this blessed word,
"And they shall see his face."

[Chorus]

"And they shall see his face,
And they shall see his face."
And so I love this blessed word,
"And they shall see his face."

[Verse 2]

Thy works, how fair they are,
In sea, and land, and sky;
But oh, beyond their beauty, far,
I look with longing eye.
My Abba dear thou art
I seek thy dwelling place;
Oh, keep thy promise in my heart,
"And they shall see his face."

[Chorus]

"And they shall see his face,

And they shall see his face."

And so I love this blessed word,

"And they shall see his face."

[Verse 3]

I hear the Savior say,

Upon the mount, to me,

The pure in heart are blessed, for they

Yahuah shall surely see.

Oh, clasp my hand in Thine;

My feet thy paths shall trace;

Cleanse thou my eyes, oh, love divine,

"And they shall see his face."

[Chorus]

"And they shall see his face,

And they shall see his face."

And so I love this blessed word,

"And they shall see his face."

[Chorus]

"And they shall see his face,

And they shall see his face."

And so I love this blessed word,

"And they shall see his face."

[Outro]

In the light of Truth, where peace unfolds,

A vision bright, a promise told.

In every heart, in every place,

Rejoice and sing, "And they shall see his face!"

We'll stand in awe, with joy embraced,

In that holy moment, "They shall see his face!"
